

When you bring a prescription to us we fill it with exactly what your physician prescribes. When you buy anything in the drug line from us it will be exactly what we say it is. We KNOW the drug business; we are EARN-EST in our work, and We Take Care.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store
BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Chalkley and Mayor W. S. Rose spent last Thursday in Bristol.

Willard Miller spent Saturday in Knoxville on business.

Miss Louise Goodloe left last week for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Smith, at City Point, Va.

J. M. Barr, a prominent coal operator of Norfolk, was among the business men in town last week.

John Gilly was down from Norton Sunday visiting home folks.

Greenville Lewis and wife, of Toms Creek, were in town Sunday.

G. W. Scott, of Norton, the popular county engineer, was in town Monday on business.

Wm. Dougherty, of Pennington Gap, was a visitor to the Gap this week.

Simon Banks visited friends in Pennington Gap Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, of East Stone Gap, spent Saturday in town shopping.

We failed to mention in last week's issue of the arrival of a fine boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mahaffey on April 9th.

Ernest Hall, of Pennington Gap, was in town one day last week on business.

Mrs. W. S. Beyerley was in Dryden last week visiting relatives.

Ryland Craft, of Gate City, was visiting home folks in the Gap last week.

A. W. Wagner was up from St. Charles last week on business.

Diamonds and Hearts Amuzu, Friday, 21st.

Don't forget this date—Friday, April 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hale, of Appalachia, spent Sunday in the Gap with relatives.

Misses Margaret and Ruth Barron spent a few days at Tacoma last week visiting Misses Nina and Mary Johnson.

Mrs. W. N. Wagner spent a few days this week with her daughter, Mrs. John McMillan, in Graham, Va.

Messrs. C. G. Duffy and S. J. Grundy, of Stonegap, and W. A. Johnson, of Appalachia, were visitors to the Gap last Thursday.

Wirt Allen, of Dryden, was a business visitor to the Gap one day last week.

G. G. McFerran spent a few days last week in Roanoke.

Mrs. H. S. Benjamin left last week on a visit to home folks in New York City.

If you enjoy a good play come to the Amuzu Friday 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Young and little son, Hugh Peter, Jr., spent a few hours in Stonegap Sunday.

The Junior Guild of the Episcopal church will meet at the home of Miss Dorothy Owens Thursday afternoon.

D. E. Allen and two children, David and Eugenia, spent Friday at Norton.

Miss Ellanus Wagner spent a few days in Atlanta, Ga., this week attending the Council.

Mrs. W. S. Lucky, of New York City, spent a few days last week in the Gap. Mrs. Lucky is the widow of the aviator who flew here last Fourth of July, and who later was fatally injured while attempting to fly in Canada.

The Guild of Christ's Episcopal Church will hold its weekly meeting in the Church Thursday at 3:30 p. m.

Miss Virginia Beverley entertained a few friends on Friday night in honor of the attractive guest of Miss Jess McCorkle, Miss Gillespie, of Richlands.

Mrs. G. B. Southward and little daughter are visiting relatives in Middlesboro this week.

H. E. Fox returned Friday night from a business trip to Kingsport, Tenn.

W. R. Peck is attending court in Harlan, Ky., this week.

Mrs. J. B. Ayers and two daughters left Saturday night for a visit to relatives in Louisville.

James Camblos, of Kingsport, spent the week-end with home folks in the Gap.

See Peter Wolfe in the part of Ab. Barner at the Amuzu Friday night, April 21.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. A. Drennen left last Tuesday for Beaver Falls, Penna., where they will spend a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. H. F. Ong.

Misses Myrtle Wolfe and Kate Brown, who have been teaching at Pennington Gap this session, have returned to their homes in the Gap.

Geo. R. Marrs, who has a position with the Clinchfield Coal Company, at Wilder, spent Sunday with his family in the Gap.

Our Easter Sale of Millinery begins Wednesday, April 19th.—Polly's.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cline, of Bristol are spending a few days in the Gap this week, guests at the Monte Vista.

S. A. Carriac, the "candy man", of Ochsburg was in town Monday on business.

C. O. VanGorder spent Sunday in Barboursville, Ky., where he attended the funeral of his little one-year-old grand daughter, Anita Faulkner, who died in Ashville, N. C., Friday after an illness of two weeks.

Mrs. Will Millard, of Wilder, Russell County, spent a few days in town last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zane Parson, near the L. & N. depot.

Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Winston, of Ashville, N. C., arrived in the Gap Sunday night on a visit to their son, L. E. Winston. Dr. Winston left Monday afternoon for Richmond, but Mrs. Winston will remain here for several days.

Miss Janet Bailey spent Saturday at Middlesboro, the guest of Miss Anna McCormick.

I. V. Jesse, who has an important position in the general offices of the Norfolk & Western Railway at Roanoke, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting home folks.

L. E. Jesse, salesman for the Mineral Motor Company at this place, spent Saturday in Oanka and Stonegap demonstrating the Ford Car.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davidson, of Stonegap, was in town Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Pressley.

See the heroine escape from the villain's dastardly schemes at the Amuzu Friday night.

Mrs. G. W. Beyerley went to Norton Monday morning where she will spend several days with her daughter, Mrs. Snodgrass, who has been quite sick for some time.

Rev. J. M. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in the Gap, will preach at Blue Springs school house on the fifth Sunday in this month at 3:30 in the afternoon. He will also preach there on the second Sunday night in next month.

Mrs. M. E. Oetkin left last week for Hannibal, Mo., where she will spend some time visiting relatives.

The stork paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Morrell Friday morning and left them the nicest little daughter. Mrs. Morrell, it will be remembered, was formerly Miss Cora Pippin.

The Knoxville Sentinel man and the Journal Tribune representative of the Booster aggregation were taken over the mountain to Norton in Miss Sarah Cochran's car. Miss Sarah, herself, drove the car with Mr. Cochran and Miss Nemo Vineyard for good measure.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will have a sale of cakes, candies, kitchen aprons and caps, at the Monte Vista Building Saturday April 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Benedict have a new son, which was born at Appalachia Thursday at the home of Mrs. Benedict's grandmother, Mrs. John Moss.

Mrs. Walter Robertson and two little daughters, Margie and Florie, spent part of last week in Bristol the guests of Mrs. Robertson's sister, Mrs. White.

The young men of the Gap are arranging to have an Easter dance at the Armory on Monday evening, April 24th. A number of visitors are expected here on this occasion.

John Fox, Jr., returned Monday night from a trip to New York.

On Saturday night Miss Jess McCorkle gave a Movie Party in honor of her guest, Miss Gillespie, of Richlands. Among those in the party were: Miss Virginia Beverley, Misses Margaret and Christine Miller, Miss Caroline Rhoads, Messrs. Baylor, Blanchard, Lane Miller, Jno. Jones and Mark Woodward.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will have a sale of cakes, candies, kitchen aprons and caps, at the Monte Vista Building Saturday April 22nd.

Mrs. O. P. Mason and Miss Mae Williams were in Appalachia last week for treatment under Dr. Staley, of Bristol, and was accompanied back by Mr. G. E. Peck, Barber of Appalachia.

Misses Matt Brown and Grace Wolfe, of Big Stone Gap, attended the closing exercises of P. H. S.—Pennington Gap Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Cabell and children returned Monday from a visit to relatives at Norton, Va.

John S. Hamblen, of Hamblen Brothers, is the sort of citizen that the Civic League likes to have boosted. He has just presented the School Yard Committee of the Civic League with a perfectly lovely big new rake for the spring work on the flower beds. A spading fork or a hoe would be gratefully received and either would go well with the rake. Don't everybody speak at once.

We regret to learn that Miss Mary Bays, who was milliner with Fuller Brothers for several seasons, and has a wide circle of friends in the Gap, is in the hospital at Dante at present, recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Miss Bays has a position at Dante.

Death of John Rivers.

John Rivers, aged 57, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Dryden, died Sunday from a sudden attack of heart failure. He had been sick hardly an hour and the news of his death was received with much sorrow by that entire community. The deceased is survived by a wife and four children. Burial took place at Dryden Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. N. J. Salyers and little son, Ralph, of Glamorgan, spent a few days in the Gap this week with relatives.

Misses Lockett, White, Horton, Waller, Bailey, VanGorder, Mrs. Lanham, Prof. A. J. Wolfe and E. C. Akers were the teachers who attended the School Fair at Norton Friday from the school here. Miss Janet Bailey went up Thursday morning to represent the school and put up the school's exhibits.

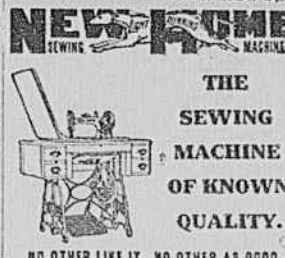

GOLF HANDICAP TOURNAMENT.

The Spring Handicap Tournament for the Spalding Cup will begin April 22nd. All players wishing to engage in this tournament must signify their intention of so doing to the Secretary not later than Saturday, April 21st. Handicaps will be fixed by committee.

The rise in price of blank paper is making it hard on all newspapers. In thirty days the price shot up to 63¢ on the dollars worth. It is more important than ever that subscribers pay their subscription promptly.

New Home Sewing Machine

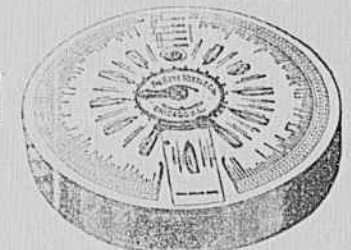

It carries into the home a cheerful and contented spirit of happiness.

THE SEWING MACHINE OF KNOWN QUALITY.

W. W. Taylor & Sons
BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

Attention Ladies

Needles, Shuttles and Bobbins for use in All Makes of Sewing Machines.

Needles, Shuttles, Bobbins and Belts for your Sewing Machine. We can fit any machine no difference what name.

HAMBLEN BROTHERS
BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

Diamonds and Hearts

Comedy Drama in 3 Acts

AT THE

AMUZU THEATRE

CAST OF CHARACTERS:

Bernice Halstead	Gladys Lile
Amy Halstead, her sister	Mary Gilly
Inez Gray, a visitor	Eula Tackett
Mrs. Halstead, a widow and step mother to the Halstead Girls	Lillian Head
Hannah Barnes, or Sis	Mattie Nickels
Dr. Burton, a young physician	Billy Baker
Dwight Bradley, Mrs. Halstead's son by a former marriage	Lester Jesse
Sammy, the bell boy	Karl Baker
Abraham Barnes, or Bub	Peter Wolfe
Sheriff	Paul Wolfe
Attorney	Oliver Swan
Director	Mrs. Lanham

Friday, April 21st, 8:30 p. m.

Given by the Senior Class of the Big Stone Gap High School.

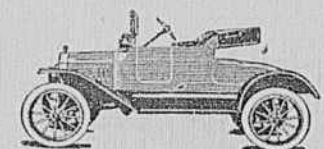

Special Musical Numbers Extra

Admission: 15 and 25 cents

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

More than a million Fords are now in everyday use, everywhere. Here are some reasons for this remarkable record—quality—service—reliability—low price—economy of operation and maintenance and the character and responsibility of the Company—the Ford is certainly the only Universal Car. Runabout $390; Touring Car $440; Coupelet $590; Town Car $640; Sedan $740, f. o. b. Detroit. On sale at

Mineral Motor Company
Distributors
Big Stone Gap, Va.

Why This Drug Store

That's Why

Purity of Drugs.
Accuracy in Prescriptions.
Freshness of Proprietary Medicines.
Best of Toilet Articles.
Durable Rubber Goods.
Variety in School Supplies.
Latest Styles in Stationery.
Tasteful Confectionery.
Delicious Ice Cream.
Choicest of Soft Drinks.
Quality Smokes.
Best Pipes and Tobaccos.
Prompt and Efficient Service.
ECONOMY IN PRICE.

Mutual Drug Company

INCORPORATED
BIG STONE GAP, VA.